

Ricardo Carmona
Menlo Park, CA - (619) 865-2201 - carmonaglz@gmail.com

---

EDUCATION

---

Georgetown University, Washington, DC May 2018
Master of Arts in Global, International, and Comparative History

- Thesis: Between Anarchy & Despotism: The Rise and Fall of Iturbide's Grand Coalition

University of San Diego, San Diego, CA May 2013
Bachelor of Arts in History, summa cum laude
Minor in Medieval Studies

- McNair Post-baccalaureate Achievement Program Scholar (2011-2013)
- History Departmental Honors (2013)
- History Honors Society (2012-2013)

---

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE

---

Upper School Social Science Teacher & Catalyst Fellow August 2023 – Present
The Castilleja School, Palo Alto, CA

- Taught classes on Ethnic Studies, Social Sciences, and Latin American History
- Researched and designed new courses focusing on Ethnic Studies & Social Sciences
- Advised students in the management of various affinity groups
- Awarded the Catalyst for Equity and Inclusion Fellowship
- Worked alongside the DEIJ director and US Principal to design & support DEIJ efforts

Graduate Assistant September 2022 – May 2023
American University School of Education, Washington, DC

- Maintain the School of Education email
- Communicate with potential students via email, phone & in-person communications
- Assistant Graduate Coordinator with admissions paperwork & events
- Assist Graduate program staff with running diverse SoE graduate programs

High School History Teacher
Georgetown Day School, Washington, DC

August 2019 – July 2022

- Taught classes on Washington DC, European, and Global history courses
- Researched and designed two new history courses focusing on Asian & Latin America
- Took on leadership roles in the 1619 committee and Staff of Color affinity group
- Advised students in the creation and management of various affinity groups and clubs

Private Tutor
Multiple Students, Washington, DC

August 2018 – July 2019

- Tutor students in various subjects, including current events, political science, geography, history, and English language skills

Home School Instructor
Amoruso Household, Washington, DC

August 2016 – June 2018

- Researched and designed high school-level Global History course and World Religions course
- Taught students critical reading skills and how to write and edit argumentative essays
- Led students in readings and discussing relevant materials

---

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

---

ADL: Breaking Down Bias	Fall 2022
ASGW Emerging Leaders	Spring 2022
AHA The Teaching History Conference	May 2021
Bard Institute of Writing & Thinking	April 2021
NAIS People of Color Conference	2020 - 2023
AHA Annual Meeting	2016

---

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

---

Research Intern October 2013– January 2014
Falchuk for Governor 2014, Boston, MA

- Assisted with the collection and analysis of raw data to create a dossier to inform the candidate
- Conducted research and wrote reports according to the needs of the candidate
- Organized and created daily recap of print and radio media reports
- Translated campaign information from English to Spanish

Research Intern February 2013 – May 2013
Joan B. Kroc School of Peace Studies, Trans-Border Institute, San Diego, CA

- Assisted with the collection and analysis of raw data to inform the institute's readers
- Conducted research and wrote blog posts for the Justice in Mexico Project
- Translated and interpreted Spanish language media

Research Intern February 2013 – May 2013
San Diego History Center, San Diego, CA

- Conducted research and artifact collection for a specific section highlighting Baja California brewers' influence in the Bottled and Kegged: San Diego's Craft Beer Culture exhibition
- Translated Spanish language primary sources and edited portions of the exhibit's text boxes

Research Scholar May 2011 – August 2012
McNair Post-baccalaureate Achievement Program, San Diego, CA

- Conducted research on Medieval travel writing under the tutelage of Dr. Thomas Barton
- Wrote a final research paper and presented research to undergraduate peers at the University of California, San Diego undergraduate research convention

---

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

---

Kitchen Volunteer January 2016 – August 2018
DC Central Kitchen, Washington, DC

- Assisted kitchen staff with prep work by cleaning, cutting, and dicing ingredients

Brewery Advisor

August 2010 – May 2013

Cervecería Legion, Mexicali, Baja California

- Trained new brewery staff in brewing techniques
- Assisted in designing and brewing test recipes and branding

Language Lab Volunteer

January 2008 – May 2010

Palomar College Community College, San Marcos, CA

- Oversaw and offered guidance to students completing Spanish language work (up to 20 students per day)

---

LANGUAGE SKILLS

---

- Native Fluency in Spanish
- Reading proficiency in Portuguese
- Elementary French
- Elementary German
- Elementary Latin